Issues of Strengthening Women's and Children's Rights Protection Discussed at RCTU Tashkent Branch

The Tashkent branch of the D. Mendeleev University of Chemical Technology hosted an educational event aimed at enhancing legal awareness among its students.

The primary objective of the meeting was to explain the provisions and significance of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, dated March 3, 2026, No. UP-33, "On additional organizational and legal measures to strengthen the protection of the rights of women and children, and the prevention of harassment and violence against them."

During the event, experts detailed the mechanisms for protecting citizens from violence and the measures being implemented to prevent such incidents. Particular emphasis was placed on key social issues, including:

- The prevention of early marriages;
- Preparing young people for family life;
- Strengthening the legislative framework of marriage and family relations.

The meeting was held in an open dialogue format, allowing students to engage directly with specialists, ask questions, and share their suggestions for fostering a legal culture among the youth.

Organizers noted that such regular meetings are essential for developing an active civic position and ensuring a high level of legal literacy among the younger generation.
